

Domaine Albert Mann, Pinot Noir, Clos de La Faille, Alsace, France, '2020'

Product code: `6279

VITICULTURE

This is the only Clos in Alsace planted with 100% Pinot Noir. The upper part of the vineyard contains rolled pebbles of pink Vosges sandstone, variegated sandstone and limestone sandstone. In the middle, there are fine-grained grey pebbles of shell limestone and yellow pebbles of Jurassic limestone. At the foot of the vineyard, there is a mixture of Vosges sandstone and white and pink quartz. The vines were planted in 1998.

TASTINGNOTE

This has unique aromas for a Pinot Noir, cedar, smoke, cigar, leather and truffle as well as chocolate, then comes blackberry, cherry and plum. This continues on the the palate where it is joined with spice notes, cinnamon, pepper and juniper berry as well as some herbs such as mint and thyme. Powerful but very elegant.

FOOD MATCHING

Mushroom ravioli, roasted mullet or baked rabbit.
