Welcome to our 2025 Autumn Portfolio Tasting

It's a pleasure to welcome you today as we enter the harvest season and closing months of the year filled with festivities. This is when great wine truly shines, and our aim is to inspire you with wines that will elevate your customers' celebrations.

This tasting's line-up is built with the specific time of year in mind: from grounded classics to the rare and premium wines that deliver unforgettable moments and encourage trading up.

You'll find a special focus on the Rhône, Loire, and Burgundy – regions whose elegance, depth, and flavour are perfect for festive dining and gifting. Alongside these, we've hand-picked producers from across our global portfolio, each representing the very best of their craft.

Whether you're building a seasonal list, seeking high-impact wines for retail, or looking for the next cult wine, every table today offers something distinctive. Think wines that grab attention on a shelf, the perfect pairing for a seasonal dish, or a talking point to engage your customers.

Our team are here to share stories, insights, and recommendations to help you delight customers and grow your business.

I hope you enjoy the tasting and the inspiration this collection brings.
