Bodegas Manzanos, Finca Manzanos Rioja Tinto DOCa, Spain, 2021

Producer Profile

On the border between Rioja and Navarra, Victor Manzanos carries on the work of the four generations before him.

With over 250ha of owned vineyards at his disposal, including some of the oldest vines in Rioja, Bodegas Manzanos is fortunately placed to put both the sub-region of Rioja Oriental and the name Manzanos firmly on the map as one of the most important areas and producers in Rioja. This range of wines is a modern take on the traditional landscape of Rioja, championing the native grape varieties, Tempranillo, Viura and Garnacha. The team is the youngest in the region, a talented a group of people with the sole purpose of making wines that people will enjoy.

Viticulture

300ha of vineyards are planted on clay-limestone soil at an average height of 400m above sea level. Meticulous attention to detail in the vineyards, coupled with the extreme climate, offer the perfect conditions for the production of great wines. Grapes are all hand-picked in early October.

Winemaking

Fermentation in stainless steel vats at a controlled temperature with 3 weeks of maceration.

Tasting Note

Bright garnet colour and aromas of woodland fruit with hints of violet. Soft supple blackberry fruit and silky texture. Well balanced with hints of violets and spice.

Food Matching

Fantastic accompaniment to roast poultry, meat casseroles and grilled fish.
