Lavradores de Feitoria, Cheda Tinto, Douro, Portugal, 2020

Producer Profile

Lavradores translates as ‘farmers’ in Portuguese. Cheda wines are made by 15 families of farmers that have been making wines in the Douro for decades.

Together they own 19 Quintas throughout the three sub-regions of the Douro Valley. They came together to share resources, expertise, tradition and innovation. To make wines that reflect the great diversity of terroir in the Douro under one roof, with one approach and one winemaking team. Paulo Ruão and Olga Martins are the incredibly talented winemakers behind Lavradores de Feitoria. Their Cheda range offers fantastic value from the heart of the Douro Valley – bright, youthful, approachable styles of wine that fit comfortably onto any shelf or wine list.

Viticulture

The grapes come from the family vineyards planted along the Douro valley that have an average age of 25 to 30 years and are farmed according to the integrated production method.

Winemaking

Stemming, crushing and a traditional red wine fermentation in stainless steel tanks. Ageing is in stainless steel vats.

Tasting Note

Vibrant red colour. Extremely fruity on the nose, clean, harmonious, with ripe fruit, blackberry, black plum and cherry nuances, typical of Douro wines. Fresh and fruity on the palate, with soft and elegant tannins. Silky and very well-balanced acidity. Generous fruit with an elegant and very savoury finish.

Food Matching

This deliciously fresh wine will pair well with rich poultry dishes and red meat.
