

Les Beaux Brins, Ventoux Rouge AOP, Southern Rhône, France, 2022

Producer Profile

Les Beaux Brins is made for us by the esteemed Samuel Montgermont, a true enthusiast of the warm and dry land of Ventoux.

He perpetuates the tradition of the Rhône Valley viticulture with meticulous care. By selecting the finest plots, he crafts this cuvée with absolute respect for the identity of its terroir. With utmost attention, he chooses the freshest and most fruity grapes, preserving the accessibility and deliciousness characteristic of the Rhône Valley.

Viticulture

A terroir with great potential, the wines of Ventoux benefit from a vineyard site with an exceptional biodiversity. These wines have a wide aromatic palette and a great fresh feeling that comes from the Mediterranean climate, tempered by the Ventoux massifs.

Winemaking

Grapes are harvested at optimum maturity. Each grape variety is vinified separately with traditional methods. A temperature controlled alcoholic fermentation with a two to three weeks maceration period. Malolactic fermentation and ageing in concrete. Blending is immediately followed by bottling.

Tasting Note

A deep and brilliant ruby colour. This very approachable Ventoux has a fresh, complex and expressive nose of cherries and gooseberries. A sensuous mouth accompanied by silky tannins. The wine is well balanced with a very enjoyable fresh finish to it.

Food Matching

A great companion for pork tenderloins with plums, risotto with wild mushrooms.
