MORA & MEMO, NAU, CANNONAU DI SARDEGNA, DOC SARDINIA, ITALY, 2019

Producer Profile

The beautiful estate of Mora & Memo sits high in the hills in the south east of Sardinia just a few kilometres from the sea.

Focused on the indigenous varieties of Cannonau and Vermentino, the combination of old vineyards with minimal intervention and a delicate touch to the winemaking results in elegant, vibrant and mineral wines. Taking the reins from her father running this small scale winery, Elisabetta focuses on producing wine representative of the island terroir, executed in a modern way.

Viticulture

The vineyards average 30 years of age with vines planted on a south, south east exposure on limestone and clay hillsides around 200 to 200m above sea level.

Winemaking

Maceration on the skins with selected yeasts for about 8-10 days at controlled temperature. After the maceration, fermentation continues in stainless steel vats. At the end of fermentation, the wine continues to refine in stainless steel vats for about six months at the end of the ageing process the wine goes into bottle for three months before its release.

Tasting Note

Intense ruby red colour with violet reflections, impenetrable. Bouquet of red berries and spices and coffee. Smooth and elegant tannins in a great structure and complexity.

Food Matching

Salami Antipasti, pasta dishes with tasty sauces, red meats, mature cheeses.

Awards

Vinous- Antonio Galloni 91 Points

The extroverted and fruit-forward 2019 Cannonau di Sardegna Nau shows ripe strawberries and plums and a balancing note of savory wild herbs. It's soft and fleshy in feel, matching its noticeable inner sweetness with mineral-tinged red fruits and spices. There's plenty of energy and depth here despite the front-loaded personality, tapering off floral and unexpectedly fresh. 91 Points. EG, March 2021.
