Oddbird Low Intervention No Alcohol Organic White, Veneto, Italy

Producer Profile

Viticulture

Produced without the use of fertiliser, irrigation or spraying, the organic and naturally grown grapes are hand picked from family-owned vineyard in Breganze, Veneto. Garganega is used Soave, and Vespaiola is a native variety of Breganze.

Winemaking

Fermented spontaneously in stainless steel before they liberate it from the alcohol whilst maintaining the authenticity of the original wine.

Tasting Note

Not only is this a delicious and youthful and vibrant white wine, it is low intervention, vegan friendly, organic and alcohol free to boot! Pear, Citrus, Floral honey and minerality. An aromatic wine with flavours of pears, stone fruit, beeswax and a refreshing finish kept youthful with a hint of sweetness. Guaranteed hangover free!

Food Matching

This vegan-friendly, alcohol-free wine works well with mild curry, pasta and spring salads.
